Watessing Notes.

In the event of Alderman Joseph W. Ellor declining to be a candidate for that office there will be a lively scramble among the numerous aspirants for the Republican nomination. John Hibbins, Daniel Wilson, James Bertenshaw, "Chinny" Walker, George Griffin, and several others are in the field. If Mr. Ellor will consent to run there is of course no use of the others holding up their heads next to Mr. Ellor. Mr. Griffin is said to be in the lead and almost sure of the nomination.

Edward Hart has retired from politics and will hereafter devote his attention to business.

The annual meeting of the Trustees of the Watessing Free Public Library will be held on Wednesday night.

The Riverside Athletic Club has challenged the Watessing Field Club to a boxing tournament.

Jesse Wilson, the one-armed member of the Watessing Field Club, is a good pool player and a hard hitter with the glove. He is more than a match for many of the members, both at the pool table and with the gloves.

Stories about young men playing poker all night for money at a club-house in Watessing does not refer to the Watessing Field Club. No gambling of any description is allowed at that club.

The poker-playing is carried on at another club-house. The biggest game is generally played on Saturday night and runs far into Sunday morning. On Sunday evenings the young men go to church with their girls. Some of them have graduated from Sunday-school.

James Albinson will build a real estate office and carpenter shop on Orange Street, opposite the Watessing station.

Wilde, the Misses Etta Christopherson, Mattie Lee, and Florence Butterworth.

A building fund has been started in St. Paul's P. E. Church.

They Will be in Clover.

There is great cause for rejoicing among the "Sons of Rest." The new hotel, "The Essex," is to be opened shortly and among its promised attractions will be a bountifully supplied free lunch served fresh and hot every day. The "Sons of Rest" anticipate a rivalry between the Essex and the American House. The attractions at one house will be offset by attractions at the other. No class in the community will appreciate competition in the free-lunch line so keenly as the "Sons of Rest." They are looking forward with joyous expectancy to the day of feasting. They will exert themselves to stimulate the rivalry. This is to be the winter of their great content.

MONTCLAIR MILITARY ACADEMY, 776 BLOOMFIELD AVENUE.

Cadets, who graduate from this Academy, are admitted without examinations to many leading colleges, as Cornell, Amherst and University of Pennsylvania. Boys six years of age are taken and prepared for college or business in the shortest time and in the most thorough manner. Time is wasted following the iron bound grades essential to the Public Schools. Classes are small and the needs of the individual are always considered.

THE REFUSED NOTE.

A Rumor That the Action of the Bank Directors is Sustained by Chancellor Runyon.

The Board of Directors of the Bloomfield National Bank were very much exercised over the publicity given last week to the proceedings of one of their meetings at which important matters were discussed. The bank will be re-caulked and all leak-holes carefully plugged.

After the meeting of Friday, the 22d inst., Dr. Harry E. Richards, counsel for the bank, is said to have gone direct to ex-Chancellor Runyon and laid the facts of the case before him. He was followed by Town Counsel Halsey M. Barrett, who also had an interview with the ex-Chancellor.

Qwing to the death of Vice-Chancellor Williamson, Mr. Runyon was unable to prepare his opinion for delivery on Monday, but it is rumored that it was furnished to the bank directors on Wednesday, and is said to have sustained the position taken by the Board of Directors, to the effect that the Township Committee had exceeded their powers in issuing notes to pay the bills presented by the city of Orange for work on the union outlet sewer.

A special meeting of the Committee will be held on Monday, at which ways and means for raising money to meet the expense of constructing the sewer will probably be discussed.

THE MADRIGAL SOCIETY.

Another Success Scored at Its Third Concert.

The third concert under the auspices of the Madrigal Society was given on Wednesday night in the First Presbyterian Church. The concert was the opening one of the season of 1892-93, and was a brilliant success. The large church was crowded. There was a full attendance of the active members of the society. C. Wenham Smith, the able conductor, was in his place. The soloists were Miss Marcelona Gonzalez, Soprano, and Dr. Carl E. Duft, Baritone, and the Violinists, Miss Lillian Parslow, Mrs. Chas. V. Martin and C. Wenham Smith were accompanists. The soloists of the evening, Miss Gonzalez and Dr. Duft, are well known to the musical community of this town. They were received with the usual hearty applause and enthusiastically encored. Miss Parslow, the violinist, proved herself an unusually fine musician. The singing of the Madrigal Society was excellent indeed, and the unanimous verdict of the large assemblage was that this last concert was the best that has been given by the society.

Bowling at the Olympic.

There was an enthusiastic gathering at the Olympic on Tuesday night when the Montclair High School bowling team and the Olympic Juniors met to do battle with the big balls. The friends of both teams were out in full force and encouraged them with vigorous applause. The Montclairs were bowled down two out of three games. Barnes of the Olympic led in the scores. He made five strikes and five spares in the first game. Following are the scores:

Next Tuesday night will be a lively one at the Olympic, when the contest between the Bloomfield Cyclers and the Amateur team will begin. The schedule of games has been arranged as follows: should either team win two successive games on Tuesday evening a third will be bowled. If each team wins a game the concluding games will take place one week later. There is much speculation indulged in as to the outcome of this series of games, and an exciting contest may be looked for.

On Thursday evening a visiting team from Brooklyn will meet the Bloomfield Cyclers on the Olympic Alleys and bowl a series of three games. The Cyclers have already won bright laurels, and their friends expect them to continue their achievement of victory in this contest.

The following big scores were made at the Olympic during the past week:

Frederick H. Chase 231, E. W. Gardner 210, Harry Peloubet 206, L. C. Haskell 201, Frank G. Tower 203, W. R. Broughton 187, C. Vogellus 185, A. A. Pearce 185, G. Lee Stout, Jr., 185, A. S. Barnes 183, Wm. Biggart 178, Mrs. W. H. Joekel 151.

AT THE GUILD HOUSE.

Musical and Literary Entertainment Under the Auspices of the Men's Guild.

On Monday evening, December 19th, there is offered for the public's patronage what would appear to be a very delightful varied entertainment, which will comprise Miss Agnes E. Bowen, soprano soloist and whistler; Miss Adele Weber, in humorous and dramatic recitals; Mr. Harry White, ventriloquist, who will introduce his friends, Mr. and Mrs. Muloney; a Newark orchestra of eight instruments and Prof. Wm. C. Piderit, accompanist. This is the first public entertainment arranged by this new organization; but, if the Men's Guild should continue to offer this class of amusement it is safe to predict that it is but the beginning, and that more of a similar superior grade will follow. Popular prices will prevail. Reserved seats, 50 cents, and children, 25 cents. This will, without doubt, ensure a large audience.
